Item 4. Description of Securities.

Not Applicable

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel.

The validity of the securities registered hereby is being passed upon by Freehills, counsel for the Registrant. As of the date of the issuance of its opinion, attorneys at Freehills owned, in the aggregate, more than $50,000 fair market value of Ordinary Shares of the Registrant.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

The Registrant is incorporated under the laws of Australia. The Registrant's constitution provides that each director, secretary or executive officer of the Company is indemnified on a full indemnity basis and to the full extent permitted by law in respect of all losses and liabilities incurred by the person or officer of the Company or its related bodies corporate. The Registrant has entered into deeds with each of its directors which give effect to their indemnity. In accordance with the powers set out in its constitution, the Registrant also maintains a Directors' and officers' liability insurance policy.

Section 199A(1) of the Corporation Act 2001 (Cth) (the Act) states that a company or a related body corporate must not exempt a person (whether directly or through an interposed entity) from a liability to the company incurred as an officer or auditor of the company.

Section 199A(2) states that a company or a related body corporate must not indemnify a person against any of the following liabilities (other than for legal costs) incurred as an officer or auditor of the company:

- (a) a liability owed to the company or a related body corporate;
- (b) a liability for a pecuniary penalty order under s 1317G or a compensation order under s 1317H or 1317HA;
- (c) a liability that is owed to someone other than the company or a related body corporate and did not arise out of conduct in good faith.

Under section 199A(3), a company or related body corporate must not indemnify a person against legal costs incurred in defending an action for a liability incurred as an officer or auditor of the company if the costs are incurred:

- (a) in defending or resisting proceedings in which the person is found to have a liability for which they could not be indemnified under section 199A(2); or
- (b) in defending or resisting criminal proceedings in which the person is found guilty; or
- (c) in defending or resisting proceedings brought by ASIC or a liquidator for a court order if the grounds for making the order are found by the court to have been established (this does not apply to costs incurred in responding to actions taken by ASIC or a liquidator as part of an investigation before commencing proceedings before the court order); or
- (d) in connection with proceedings for relief to the person under the Act in which the Court denies the relief.

Section 199B(1) states that a company or a related body corporate must not pay, or agree to pay, a premium for a contract insuring a person who is or has been an officer or auditor of the company against a liability (other than one for legal costs) arising out of:

- (a) conduct involving a willful breach of duty in relation to the company; or
- (b) a contravention of section 182 (improper use of position) or section 183 (improper use of information).

Section 199C(1) states that sections 199A and 199B do not authorize anything that would otherwise be unlawful.

Section 199C(2) states that anything that purports to indemnify or insure a person against a liability, or exempt them from a liability, is void to the extent that it contravenes section 199A and 199B.

Item 9. Undertakings.

The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes:

1. To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the Registration Statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in the volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the Calculation of Registration Fee table in the effective Registration Statement.

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the Registration Statement or any material change to such information in the Registration Statement; provided, however, that paragraphs (1)(i) and (1)(ii) of this section do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the Registrant pursuant to Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement.

2. That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new Registration Statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

3. To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that is incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new Registration Statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

SIGNATURES

Pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, the Registrant certifies that it has reasonable grounds to believe that it meets all of the requirements for filing on Form S-8 and has duly caused this Registration Statement to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned, thereunto duly authorized, in Red Bank, New Jersey, on this 14th day of December, 2006.
