Item 2.05. Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities.

As described in Item 8.01 below, on December 22, 2008, Owens & Minor, Inc. (the Company) entered into a definitive agreement to sell certain assets of its Florida-based, direct-to-consumer diabetes supply business (the DTC Business). In connection with this sale, the Company intends to exit the DTC Business, dispose of certain remaining assets of the DTC Business and terminate substantially all of the employees of the DTC Business. The sale of the DTC Business assets is expected to close in early January 2009 after which the Company will pursue collection of outstanding accounts receivable and otherwise wind down its operation of the DTC Business during 2009.

The Company expects to be able to reasonably estimate the total amount or range of amounts anticipated to be incurred in connection with its exit from the DTC Business at the time it releases its year-end financial results in early February 2009.

Item 8.01. Other Events.

On December 22, 2008, the Company entered into a definitive agreement to sell certain assets of its direct-to-consumer diabetes supply business as more fully described in the press release furnished hereunder and attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.
