SUPPLEMENT TO THE DEFINITIVE PROXY STATEMENT

This Current Report on Form 8-K (this Form 8-K) is being filed to update and supplement the definitive proxy statement on Schedule 14A, File No. 001-33209, filed by Altra Industrial Motion Corp. (Altra) with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) on August 6, 2018 (the definitive proxy statement). The information contained in this Form 8-K is incorporated by reference into the definitive proxy statement. Terms used in this Form 8-K, but not otherwise defined, shall have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the definitive proxy statement.

The supplemental information contained in this Form 8-K should be read in conjunction with the definitive proxy statement, which should be read in its entirety. To the extent that information in this Form 8-K differs from or updates information contained in the definitive proxy statement, the information in this Form 8-K shall supersede or supplement the information in the definitive proxy statement. The information contained in this supplement speaks only as of August 23, 2018, unless the information specifically indicates that another date applies.

If you have not already submitted a proxy for use at the special meeting of Altra stockholders since the distribution of the definitive proxy statement, you are urged to do so promptly. This Form 8-K does not affect the validity of any proxy card or voting instructions that Altra stockholders may have previously received or delivered following the distribution of the definitive proxy statement. No action is required by any Altra stockholder who has previously delivered a proxy or voting instructions following the distribution of the definitive proxy statement and who does not wish to revoke or change that proxy or voting instructions.

Litigation Relating to the Transactions

On August 8, 2018, a purported class action was filed against Altra and each of the members of its board of directors and Fortive in the Superior Court of Norfolk County, Massachusetts, by an individual who purports to be a stockholder of Altra. The plaintiff purports to bring this action on behalf of all public stockholders of Altra. The complaint alleges that the individual defendants breached their fiduciary duties in approving the Transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement because, among other things, the Transactions overvalue the A&S Business, will dilute current Altra stockholders and were motivated by Altra's directors and officers seeking to increase their own compensation, and by failing to disclose all material facts relevant to such Transactions in the definitive proxy statement, including facts relating to potential conflicts of interests of Altra's financial advisors, the analyses performed by Altra's financial advisors, the free cash flow projections relied on by Altra's financial advisors in their analyses and the content of particular discussions between Altra and Fortive. The complaint also asserts that Fortive aided and abetted the individual defendants' alleged breach of fiduciary duties. The plaintiff seeks, among other things, to enjoin the Merger and obtain monetary damages in an unspecified amount as well as legal fees and expenses. Altra and Fortive believe that the plaintiff's allegations lack merit, that the definitive proxy statement adequately discloses all information regarding the Transactions that is material to a stockholder's decision to vote at the special meeting and, with respect to certain factual statements described below, Altra believes such factual statements are inaccurate.

The plaintiff characterizes the Transactions as a sale of control of Altra to Fortive. In fact, Fortive will not acquire any ownership interest in or control over Altra. Instead, Fortive stockholders will own approximately 54% and existing Altra stockholders 46% of Altra after giving effect to the Transactions. No individual stockholder is expected to obtain a controlling stake in Altra as a result of the Transactions.

The plaintiff alleges that Altra failed to disclose the fee paid to KBCM in connection with the delivery of KBCM's opinion. To the contrary, Altra disclosed that KBCM received a fee of $1.0 million in connection with the delivery of its opinion on page 142 of the definitive proxy statement in the section entitled "The Transactions: Opinion of KeyBanc Capital Markets Inc."

The plaintiff alleges that Goldman Sachs and KBCM have undisclosed conflicts of interest because, among other things, each owns shares of Altra and/or Fortive. However, as of March 6, 2018, none of Goldman Sachs' Investment Banking Division, funds in which Goldman Sachs' Investment Banking Division has a direct equity investment, or funds managed by Goldman Sachs' Merchant Banking Division (which Division operates on the private side of the firm's informational wall) had a direct equity investment in Altra, Fortive or any respective majority-owned subsidiary thereof (as reflected in Goldman Sachs' books and records). In addition, KBCM does not hold any shares and any shares held by KBCM's affiliates are held in managed accounts on behalf of third parties and are not held for proprietary accounts of such affiliates.

The plaintiff alleges that the definitive proxy statement omits details concerning negotiations to determine the post-closing roles of Altra's directors and management. In fact, no such negotiations ever took place.

The full text of the complaint, which should be read in its entirety, is attached as Exhibit 99.1 to this Form 8-K. If additional similar actions are filed, absent new or different allegations that are material, Altra and Fortive will not necessarily announce such additional filings.

Certain Financial Forecasts Prepared by Altra

While Altra believes that the plaintiff's allegations described above are meritless and does not believe the information set forth below is required to be disclosed or material to a stockholder's decision regarding how to vote on the proposals described in the definitive proxy statement, this information is being included in this document to dispose of any issue relating to the disclosure of such information. The information set forth below is subject to, and should be read in conjunction with, all of the qualifications, limitations and disclosures set forth under the heading "Certain Financial Forecasts Prepared by Altra" on pages 142-144 of the definitive proxy statement.

Treatment of the Charter Amendment as a Routine Matter

The NYSE has informed Altra that it deems the proposal to approve the Charter Amendment to be a routine matter, pursuant to NYSE Rule 452. In accordance with NYSE Rule 452, banks, brokers and other nominees who hold shares of common stock in "street name" for their customers have discretionary authority to vote such shares on routine matters, but do not have such discretionary authority to vote the shares on non-routine matters. Accordingly, if your shares are held by a bank, broker or other nominee on your behalf in "street name" and you do not instruct your bank, broker or other nominee how to vote on the proposal to approve the Charter Amendment, your bank, broker or other nominee may nonetheless vote on the proposal to approve the Charter Amendment if it chooses to exercise such discretionary authority. However, in the absence of customer instructions, banks, brokers and other nominees will deliver "broker non-votes" in connection with, and shares held in "street name" will not be voted on, the proposals to

To the extent the information above contradicts or conflicts with any information contained in the definitive proxy statement, including in the letter to Altra stockholders and the sections entitled Questions and Answers about the Transactions and the Special Meeting and Information about the Special Meeting Record Date; Quorum; Voting Information; Required Votes, the definitive proxy statement is hereby amended and supplemented to reflect the information described above.
