Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On December 17, 2018, Quotient Limited (we, us, our and the Company) wholly-owned subsidiary Alba Bioscience Limited (Alba) entered into a supply agreement (the Supply Agreement) with Ortho-Clinical Diagnostics, Inc. (Ortho), pursuant to which we develop and sell to Ortho certain reagent products, including a range of rare antisera products. The Supply Agreement is effective as of January 1, 2017, and governs our development and supply relationship with Ortho, including terms relating to price, quality, exclusivity and territory, with respect to these products. In addition, pursuant to the Supply Agreement, we continue to be entitled to receive milestone payments in the aggregate of $1.5 million upon the submissions and Federal Drug Administration (FDA) approvals of the rare antisera products for use on Ortho's automation platforms. The initial term, which may be extended at Ortho's option for three additional years, is through January 1, 2027. The Supply Agreement replaces in its entirety the Umbrella Supply Agreement, dated December 1, 2004, between Alba Bioscience, a division of the Scottish National Blood Transfusion Service, predecessor to Alba, acting on behalf of The Common Services Agency, and Ortho (the Umbrella Supply Agreement). The Supply Agreement can be terminated by Ortho without cause upon 12 months prior written notice. The Supply Agreement contains representations, warranties, and indemnities that are customary for agreements of this type.

In January 2015, QBD (QS IP) and Quotient Suisse SA, both wholly-owned subsidiaries of the Company, entered into a supply and distribution agreement with Ortho related to the commercialization and distribution of certain MosaiQ products. Under the terms of this agreement, we are entitled to receive milestone payments upon CE-mark and FDA approval, as well as upon the first commercial sale of the relevant MosaiQ products by Ortho within the European Union, United States and within any country outside of these two regions. In addition, in January 2015, we issued 7% Cumulative Redeemable Preference shares to Ortho-Clinical Diagnostics Finco S.Á.R.L., an affiliate of Ortho, at a subscription price of $22.50 per share.

Item 1.02. Termination of a Material Definitive Agreement.

On December 17, 2018, Alba and Ortho entered into the Supply Agreement, which terminated and replaced in its entirety the Umbrella Supply Agreement, effective as of January 1, 2017. The Umbrella Supply Agreement related to the manufacture and sale of conventional reagent products. The Umbrella Supply Agreement contained terms related to each product we sold to Ortho, including quality, price, exclusivity and territory, including a product attachment relating to the development of a range of rare antisera products. In addition, pursuant to the Umbrella Supply Agreement, we were entitled to receive a milestone payment of $1.5 million upon the updating of the FDA approvals to cover use of the rare antisera products on Ortho's automation platforms. As described under Item 1.01 of this Current Report on Form 8-K, we continue to be entitled to receive this payment in the aggregate.
