ITEM 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

ITEM 2.03 Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant.

On January 11, 2005, Innovex, Inc. (the Company) entered into a financing arrangement with US Federal Credit Union (US Federal) pursuant to which the Company borrowed $4,000,000 from US Federal, represented by the Business Note attached hereto at Exhibit 10.1 (the Note). The Note is due February 10, 2010, but may be prepaid at any time without penalty. Principal amounts under the Note bear interest at a rate of 7% per annum, but in the event of default of the Note, the interest rate will increase to the highest amount allowed under Minnesota law. The Company is required to make monthly principal and interest payments under the Note of $28,271.17 beginning on February 10, 2005.

Under a security agreement, the Company has granted US Federal a security interest of up to $7,104,000 in the Company's Maple Plain and Litchfield facilities pursuant to a Combination Mortgage, Assignment of Rents and Security Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit 10.2 (the Security Agreement). Under the Security Agreement, the Company makes affirmative and negative covenants regarding the security customary for a transaction of this type, including covenants against encumbrances, compliance with laws, payments of taxes and utilities, maintenance of insurance, notices of changes in the mortgaged property, use of the mortgaged property and its preservation, environmental matters and compliance with leases. The Security Agreement also describes events of default, including failure to pay installments of principal or interest, breach of any covenant or agreement with US Federal, bankruptcy or dissolution, failure to pay taxes and assessments and material adverse changes in the Company's financial condition.
