Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On September 2, 2014, Murphy Oil USA, Inc. (for purposes of this description, the “Borrower”), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Murphy USA Inc. (“Murphy USA”), together with Murphy USA and certain subsidiaries entered into a Third Amendment (the “Third Amendment”) to the Credit Agreement originally entered into on August 30, 2013 with JP Morgan Chase Bank, N.A., as administrative agent, and the other lenders party thereto (as previously amended, the “Credit Agreement”). The Third Amendment modified various provisions of the Credit Agreement to, among other things, (1) extend the maturity date of the Credit Agreement to five years from the effective date of the Third Amendment and (2) amend the terms of various covenants within the Credit Agreement.

The foregoing summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Third Amendment, which is attached as Exhibit 10.1. The representations and warranties of Murphy USA and the Borrower in the Third Amendment were made only for purposes of that agreement and as of specific dates and were solely for the benefit of the lenders party thereto. The Third Amendment is a contractual document that establishes and governs the legal relations among the parties thereto and is not intended to be a source of factual, business, or operational information about Murphy USA and its subsidiaries. The representations and warranties made by Murphy USA and the Borrower in the Third Amendment may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Accordingly, investors and security holders should not rely on such representations and warranties as characterizations of the actual state of facts or circumstances.
