ITEM 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

On November 30, 2007, the Board of Directors of Cordia Corporation, (Cordia) a Nevada corporation, voted to reorganize Cordia s accounting/finance departments at the executive officer level by eliminating the redundancy of having two principal financial/accounting officers a Chief Financial Officer and Chief Accounting Officer. The Board believed it was in the best interest of Cordia to eliminate the CAO position and to consolidate the accounting, finance and treasury functions in one individual at the executive officer level, that individual being the CFO. This decision was communicated to Gandolfo Verra, Cordia s current CFO and Lorie Guerrero, Cordia s current CAO who both agreed that this would be in the best interest of Cordia; Ms. Guerrero, putting the best interest of Cordia first then tendered her resignation from the positions of CAO and Treasurer. Ms. Guerrero s resignation is limited solely to her service to Cordia as an executive officer and in no way affects her continued employment with Cordia. Mr. Verra was thereafter appointed to the position of Treasurer.

Mr. Verra has over thirty (30) years of financial experience. He currently serves as Cordia s CFO and has held this position since July 1, 2006. Prior to his service with Cordia, his experience has been in a controller capacity and also as a supervisor of cost accounting. During the last twenty (20) years, Mr. Verra has served as controller for eLEC Communications Corp. (f/k/a Sirco International Corp.), a competitive local exchange carrier. Mr. Verra has not been involved in any transaction with Cordia in which Mr. Verra has a direct or indirect interest and no familial relationship exists between Mr. Verra and his fellow officers and directors. At this time, there are no proposed transactions of this nature contemplated between Cordia and Mr. Verra.
