Christine Lagarde and Jan Hommen nominated as members Supervisory Board ING Group

ING Group will propose to the 2005 Annual General Meeting of Shareholders (AGM) the appointments of Christine Lagarde (1956, French) as of 27 April 2005 and Jan Hommen (1943, Dutch) as of 1 June 2005, as members of the Supervisory Board of ING Group. The AGM will be held on Tuesday, 26 April 2005.

At the AGM, Luella Gross Goldberg and Godfried van der Lugt will be proposed for reappointment to the Supervisory Board. Jan Timmer will retire from the Supervisory Board after the AGM, following his reappointment in 2003 for two extra years.

Christine Lagarde is currently partner of Baker & McKenzie, one of the world's leading law firms, and chairman of its Global Policy Committee. Previously, she was Chairman of the Global Executive Committee of Baker & McKenzie from October 1999 to October 2004. The proposed appointment is based on Christine Lagarde's knowledge of business and labour law and her competence in international economic, regulatory and public-policy issues.

Jan Hommen is currently Vice-Chairman and Chief Financial Officer of the Board of Management of Royal Philips Electronics. Previously, he was Executive Vice-President and Chief Financial Officer of Aluminium Company of America (Alcoa) from 1991 until 1997. He will leave Royal Philips Electronics as of May 1, 2005 upon reaching the statutory retirement age of 62. The proposed appointment is based on Jan Hommen's knowledge of international trade and industry and his expertise as a CFO of a multinational.

Approval from the Dutch Central Bank for these proposed appointments is required.

Additional information on the composition of the Supervisory Board is included in ING's Annual Report that was published today on www.ing.com.
