Gartner CEB Transaction Research Associates Intranet Message from Head of Research

[To be posted for all Research Associates]

Colleagues,

As you've probably read in Gene's intranet message, we are excited to announce today that Gartner has entered into an agreement to acquire CEB, creating the leading global research and advisory company for all major functions in the enterprise. We expect the acquisition to be completed in the first half of 2017. Although this is great news, we should remain focused on our existing priorities so that we get off to a fast start in Q1.

Here's what you need to know:

- It is business as usual for both Gartner and CEB. We will operate as independent companies. This means that Gartner and CEB products will continue to be sold and delivered separately by their existing teams.
- This is also true for research. It's business as usual. Therefore, please do not reach out to CEB associates at this early stage.

Edgar Filing: CEB Inc. - Form 425

- Over the coming months, an experienced joint cross-functional team will develop plans to bring Gartner and CEB together and capitalize on the capabilities across each organization. We will share more information on this process with team members as we make progress.
- Following the close of this transaction, our initial focus will be on accelerating the growth of the existing CEB business by applying Gartner best practices operating at scale, in addition to identifying and maximizing cross-selling opportunities.
- Additionally, we will introduce CEB's existing services into new geographies and our mid-size enterprise clients worldwide.
- The acquisition will also provide exciting new growth opportunities for our research business, expanding our syndicated research and advisory services to CEB's clients in a broad range of functional areas we haven't traditionally served, from Human Resources and Sales to Finance and Legal. We look forward to building a new comprehensive and differentiated suite of advisory services aligned to the mission-critical priorities of virtually all functional business leaders across every industry and size of enterprise worldwide.
- If you receive questions from clients, please refer them to Gene's letter to clients, posted on our website. An FAQ is also posted on the site. If you get a question, please convey our excitement about acquiring the industry leader in providing best practice and talent management insights, while also acknowledging that it's still very early days, so it's definitely 'business as usual' for both our companies at this time. We will communicate more information to clients following close.
- Consistent with our company policy, please forward any press calls about this acquisition to Andrew Spender and forward any investor calls to Sherief Bakr, in each case without providing comment.

I hope that you share my enthusiasm about this exciting acquisition and the significant benefits it will bring to Gartner. Above all, let's stay focused and continue to provide best-in-class research to our clients worldwide.

Sincerely,

Peter Sondergaard

Senior Vice President, Research
