PROSPECTUS

WAL-MART STORES, INC.

16,000,000 Shares of Common Stock

This prospectus forms part of a registration statement that we filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission and relates to 16,000,000 shares of our common stock, par value $0.10 per share, that may be offered by the selling shareholders from time to time. The term "selling shareholders," as used in this prospectus, means the selling shareholders named herein and any donee to which a named selling shareholder donates any of those shares. We will not receive any proceeds from the sale of those shares by any of the selling shareholders.

Shares of our common stock are listed on the New York Stock Exchange and the Pacific Stock Exchange under the trading symbol "WMT." On December 10, 2002, the closing price of our common stock on the NYSE was $52.49 per share.

The selling shareholders may offer and sell from time to time any or all of the shares of our common stock to which this prospectus relates in ordinary brokerage transactions on the NYSE or PSE or in negotiated transactions, at market prices prevailing at the time of the sale or negotiated prices. They may also offer and sell any of those shares in transactions of the other types described under the heading "Plan of Distribution," including in underwritten offerings. Offers and sales may be made either directly or through underwriters, brokers, dealers or agents. The selling shareholders will receive all of the net proceeds from the sale of those shares and will pay any underwriting discounts and commissions and transfer taxes applicable to those sales.

As of the date of this prospectus, Walton Enterprises, L.P. owned the shares of our common stock to which this prospectus relates. Walton Enterprises will distribute all or a part of those shares to the selling shareholders named herein. This prospectus does not state the number of those shares that Walton Enterprises will distribute to, and that will be held by, each named selling shareholder. Once we are informed of the number of those shares to be held by each named selling shareholder, we will file a prospectus supplement indicating the number of those shares that each of the named selling shareholders will hold. At any time a named selling shareholder donates shares of the common stock to another person, we will, if required and if the donee notifies us that it intends to sell in excess of 500 of the shares it receives, file a prospectus supplement naming that person as a selling shareholder, stating the number of the shares of our common stock to which this prospectus relates that have been donated to that donee and providing any other required information regarding that donee.

This prospectus may not be used by a selling shareholder to offer and sell the shares of our common stock to which this prospectus relates in any instance unless accompanied by the applicable prospectus supplement of the type described above. Except for offers and sales of those shares made by selling shareholders in reliance on this prospectus in ordinary brokerage transactions or in negotiated transactions, at the time any particular offer of shares is made, if and to the extent required, the specific number of shares offered, the offering price and the other terms of the offering, including the names of any underwriters, dealers or agents, will be set forth in an additional prospectus supplement.

You should read carefully both this prospectus and any accompanying prospectus supplement, together with the additional information described under the heading "Where You Can Find More Information," before making your investment decision. The prospectus supplement may update or change information contained in this prospectus.

Walton Enterprises has agreed to pay our expenses in connection with the registration of the shares of our common stock to which this prospectus relates.

Neither the Securities and Exchange Commission nor any state securities commission or other regulatory body has approved or disapproved of these securities or determined if this prospectus is truthful or complete. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offense.

The date of this Prospectus is 1, 2002.

Forward-looking statements may be included, for example, under Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. and Use of Proceeds, and in certain portions of our reports and other information incorporated in this prospectus by reference, and generally can be identified by use of words such as believe, expect, anticipate, intend, plan, foresee or other similar words or phrases. our management's anticipation and expectations as to future occurrences and trends.

Although we believe the expectations expressed in the forward-looking statements are based on reasonable assumptions within the bounds of our knowledge of our business, a number of risks, uncertainties and factors, domestically and internationally, could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed in any forward-looking statements, whether oral or written, made by us or on our behalf. We have previously identified many of these factors in filings or statements we made or that were made on our behalf.

Our business operations are subject to risks, uncertainties and factors outside our control. Any one, or a combination, of these could materially affect our financial performance. These risks, uncertainties and factors include:

Consequently, all of the forward-looking statements made are qualified by these cautionary statements. We cannot assure you that the results or developments anticipated by us will be realized or, even if substantially realized, that they will have the expected consequences to or effects on us or on our business or operations. USE OF PROCEEDS

We will not receive any proceeds from the sale of the shares of our common stock to which this prospectus relates by the selling shareholders.

DESCRIPTION OF OUR COMMON STOCK

Pursuant to our restated certificate of incorporation, as amended, our authorized capital stock consists of 11,100,000,000 shares, each with a par value of $0.10 per share, of which:

11,000,000,000 shares are designated as common stock, 4,411,794,077 of which were outstanding as of December 9, 2002; and

Each holder of our common stock is entitled to one vote for each share owned of record on all matters submitted to a vote of shareholders. The vote required to decide any question brought before a shareholder meeting at which a quorum is present is a majority of the outstanding shares present in person or represented by proxy at that meeting, except as otherwise required by the Delaware General Corporation Law. The Delaware General Corporation Law requires that the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of our stock approve any amendments to our

Edgar Filing: WAL MART STORES INC - Form S-3

Restated Certificate of Incorporation, any merger or consolidation to which we are a party (other than parent-subsidary mergers), any sale of all or substantially all of our assets or any dissolution of the corporation. In addition, that law requires the holders of all of the outstanding shares of our stock to approve any conversion of our corporation to another type of entity, such as a limited liability company. The shareholders do not have cumulative voting rights. Subject to the preferential rights of any holders of any series of preferred stock that may be issued hereafter, the holders of our common stock are entitled to such dividends and distributions, whether payable in cash or otherwise, as may be declared from time to time by our board of directors from legally available funds. Subject to the preferential rights of holders of any series of preferred stock that may be issued hereafter, upon our liquidation, dissolution or winding-up and after payment of all prior claims and outstanding obligations, the holders of our common stock will be entitled to receive pro rata all our remaining assets. Holders of our common stock have no redemption or conversion rights or preemptive rights to purchase or subscribe for any of our securities.

SELLING SHAREHOLDERS

The named selling shareholders for purposes of this prospectus are the Helen R. Walton Nonqualified Charitable Remainder Trust and the Walton Family Charitable Support Foundation, Inc. Walton Enterprises owns the 16,000,000 shares of our common stock to which this prospectus relates. Those shares constitute less than 0.5% of the outstanding shares of our common stock. Walton Enterprises, which is a family partnership of the family of our founder, Mr. Sam Walton, owned approximately 38.4% of our outstanding shares of common stock as of December 9, 2002. Mr. S. Robson Walton, a general partner of Walton Enterprises, is the Chairman of the Board and a Director of Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. Mr. John T. Walton, who is also a general partner of Walton Enterprises, is also a Director of Wal-Mart Stores, Inc.

Walton Enterprises has informed us that it plans to distribute all or part of the 16,000,000 shares of our common stock to which this prospectus relates to the Trust and the Foundation, both of which are currently partners in Walton Enterprises. Members of the Walton family established the Trust and the Foundation as part of their charitable planning. Among the programs the Walton family intends to fund by the sale of the shares of our common stock to which this prospectus relates is a recently announced $300 million gift to the University of Arkansas.

Once Walton Enterprises informs us of the number of those shares distributed to each of the Trust and the Foundation, we will file with the SEC a prospectus supplement that will set forth the number of those shares to be owned by the Trust and the number of shares to be owned by the Foundation.

After Walton Enterprises distributes all or any part of the shares of our common stock to which this prospectus relates to the Trust and the Foundation, the Trust and the Foundation may either sell some or all of those shares they receive and donate the net proceeds of those sales to the beneficiaries of their charitable programs or donate all or a part of the shares they own to the beneficiaries of those programs. If the Trust or the Foundation donates any of those shares to one of its beneficiaries, the donee may become a party to the registration rights agreement described below and become a selling shareholder. If any donee of shares notifies us that it intends to sell in excess of 500 shares of our common stock to which this prospectus relates, we will file with the SEC a prospectus supplement naming that donee as a selling shareholder, indicating the number of shares of our common stock to which this prospectus relates that the donee received and providing any other information required to be disclosed as to that donee. See Plan of Distribution.

We recently entered into a registration rights agreement with Walton Enterprises, the Trust and the Foundation pursuant to which we agreed to register the offer and resale of up to 16,000,000 shares of our common stock by the selling shareholders. Pursuant to the registration rights agreement, Walton Enterprises agreed to pay our expenses in connection with the registration of the shares of our common stock to which this prospectus relates. We and the selling shareholders that are or may become parties to that agreement have agreed to indemnify each other against certain civil liabilities, including certain liabilities under the Securities Act, in connection with the registration of the shares and the offer and resale of the shares pursuant to the registration statement.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

Under this prospectus, including any amendment or supplement hereto, the selling shareholders may offer shares of our common stock to which this prospectus relates from time to time, depending on market conditions and other factors, in one or more transactions on the NYSE, PSE or other national securities exchanges on which our shares are traded, in the over-the-counter market or otherwise. The shares may be offered and sold in ordinary brokerage transactions, block trades, or other negotiated trades and may be offered and sold at market prices prevailing at the time of sale, at negotiated prices or at fixed prices. The shares of our common stock may be offered in any manner permitted by law, including through underwriters, brokers, dealers or agents, or directly to one or more purchasers. Sales of the shares of our common stock may involve any of the following:

sales to underwriters who will acquire the shares for their own account and resell them in one or more transactions at fixed prices or at varying prices determined at time of sale;

block transactions in which the broker or dealer so engaged will attempt to sell the shares as agent but may position and resell a portion of the block as principal to facilitate the transaction;

purchases by a broker or dealer as principal and resale by such broker or dealer for its account;

an exchange distribution in accordance with the rules of any such exchange; or ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which a broker solicits purchasers.

Brokers and dealers may receive compensation in the form of underwriting discounts, concessions or commissions from the selling shareholders or purchasers of shares for whom they may act as agent (which compensation may be in excess of customary commissions). The selling shareholders and any broker or dealer that participates in the distribution of shares may be deemed to be underwriters and any commissions received by them and any profit on the resale of shares positioned by a broker or dealer may be deemed to be underwriting discounts and commissions under the Securities Act. In the event any selling shareholder engages an underwriter in connection with a sale of the shares of our common stock, a prospectus supplement will be delivered, which will set forth the number of shares being offered and the terms of the offering, including the names of the selling shareholders, the underwriters, any discounts, commissions and other items constituting compensation to underwriters, dealers or agents, the public offering price and any discounts, commissions or concessions allowed or reallocated or paid by underwriters to dealers.

We will file a prospectus supplement with the SEC to disclose additional information with respect to particular offers or sales by a selling shareholder of the shares of our common stock covered by this prospectus, unless the particular offer or sale involves an offer or sale of 500 or fewer of the shares of our common stock by a donee of the Trust or the Foundation, or an offer or sale of any of the shares of our common stock that is made by a selling shareholder in reliance on this prospectus in an ordinary brokerage transaction or in a negotiated transaction.

LEGAL MATTERS

The validity of our common stock offered by this prospectus and any prospectus supplement will be passed upon for us by Hughes & Luce, L.L.P., our counsel.

ITEM 15. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS.

The By-Laws of Wal-Mart Stores, Inc., as amended to date, provide that each person who was or is made a party to, or is involved in, any action, suit or proceeding by reason of the fact that he or she was a director or officer of Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. (or was serving at the request of Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. as a director, officer, employee or agent for another entity) will be indemnified and held harmless by us to the full extent authorized by the Delaware General Corporation Law.

Section 145 of the Delaware General Corporation Law provides, among other things, that Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. may indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of Wal-Mart Stores, Inc.) by reason of the fact that the person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of Wal-Mart Stores, Inc., or is or was serving at the request of Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding. This power to indemnify applies only if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of Wal-Mart Stores, Inc., and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful.

This power to indemnify applies to actions brought by or in the right of Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. as well, but only to the extent of defense expenses (including attorney's fees but excluding amounts paid in settlement) actually and reasonably incurred and not to any satisfaction of a judgment or settlement of the claim itself, and with the further limitation that in such actions no indemnification shall be made in the event of any adjudication of liability to Wal-Mart Stores, Inc., unless the court believes that in light of all the circumstances indemnification should apply.

To the extent that a present or former director or officer of Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. is successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, such person shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection therewith.

The Restated Certificate of Incorporation of Wal-Mart Stores, Inc., as amended to date, provides that, to the fullest extent permitted by the Delaware General Corporation Law as the same exists or may hereafter be amended, a director of Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. shall not be liable to Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director. The Delaware General Corporation Law permits Delaware corporations to include in their certificates of incorporation a provision eliminating or limiting director liability for monetary damages arising from breaches of their fiduciary duty. The only limitations imposed under the statute are that the provision may not eliminate or limit a director's liability (i) for breaches of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or involving intentional misconduct or known violations of law, (iii) for the payment of unlawful dividends or unlawful stock purchases or redemptions, or (iv) for transactions in which the director received an improper personal benefit.

Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. is insured against liabilities that it may incur by reason of its indemnification of officers and directors in accordance with its By-Laws. In addition, directors and officers are insured, at its expense, against certain liabilities that might arise out of their employment and are not subject to indemnification under its By-Laws.

The foregoing summaries are necessarily subject to the complete text of the statute, the Restated Certificate of Incorporation, as amended, the By-Laws and the agreements referred to above and are qualified in their entirety by reference thereto.

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar amount of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated offering range may be reflected in the form of a prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the Calculation of Registration Fee table in the effective Registration Statement;

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at the time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel in the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
