PART III
NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR or N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

As previously disclosed in the Current Report on Form 8-K filed by FreightCar America, Inc. (the Company) with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) on July 28, 2009, the Company announced that it had identified historical accounting errors in accounts payable. The accounting errors have resulted in the understatement of net earnings since the fourth quarter of 2007.

The Company undertook a review to determine the total amount of the errors and the accounting periods in which the errors occurred. The Company's review was overseen by the audit committee (the Audit Committee) of the board of directors of the Company with the assistance of independent consultants, independent legal counsel and independent forensic accountants. The Audit Committee concluded on July 27, 2009 that the Company's previously issued audited consolidated financial statements as of and for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2008 and December 31, 2007, and related auditors' report, and unaudited interim consolidated financial statements as of and for the quarterly periods ended March 31, 2009, December 31, 2008, September 30, 2008, June 30, 2008, March 31, 2008 and December 31, 2007 should no longer be relied upon because of these errors in the financial statements. The Company's board of directors agreed with the Audit Committee's conclusions. The Company intends to restate these financial statements. Because of the nature and timing of the review, the Company is unable to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended June 30, 2009 with the SEC on August 10, 2009, the prescribed due date. The Company does not expect that such filing will be made within the five-day extension period provided for under Rule 12b-25. The delay could not be eliminated without unreasonable effort or expense. The Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended June 30, 2009 will be filed as soon as practicable after the Company has completed the restatement process.
