ORTHODONTIC CENTERS OF AMERICA, INC. ANNOUNCES
RECORD THIRD QUARTER 2001 RESULTS

METAIRIE, Louisiana (October 25, 2001) - Orthodontic Centers of America, Inc. (NYSE:OCA) today announced record financial results for the third quarter ended September 30, 2001. Bart Palmisano, Sr., Chief Executive Officer, President and Chairman of the Board of OCA, said, "We are extremely pleased with our record third quarter performance. As our affiliated orthodontists continue to witness steady, strong demand for orthodontic treatment, we continue to leverage the significant capacity latent in our network of affiliated orthodontic centers. OCA's proven ability to add value at the practice continues to translate into superior growth."

Third Quarter 2001 Financial and Operating Highlights:

- o Record earnings per share of $0.30 were up 30.4% compared to third quarter 2000 earnings per share of $0.23.
- o Record fee revenue of $86.8 million increased 24.5%, reflecting strong results from growth initiatives, compared to $69.7 million in the third quarter of 2000.
- o The dollar amount of new patient contracts, the greatest predictor of future fee revenue, increased 25.3% to a record $181.9 million, compared to $145.2 million in the third quarter of 2000.
- o Record patient case starts of 56,268 were up 20.5%, compared to 46,698 in the third quarter of 2000.
- o Comparable center fee revenue growth was outstanding at 22.0%.
- o Patient interval days increased to 45.9 days from 43.9 days in the third quarter of 2000, reflecting continued improvement in productivity and scheduling efficiencies.
- o Cash flow from operations for the nine months ended September 30, 2001 was robust at $35.9 million.

Edgar Filing: ORTHALLIANCE INC - Form 425

- o Total number of patients under treatment with affiliated orthodontists increased 22.8% to 401,220 at September 30, 2001, compared to 326,840 at September 30, 2000.
- o EBITDA margin continued to be outstanding at 34.5%.

For the third quarter of 2001, fee revenue increased 24.5% to $86.8 million, compared to $69.7 million for the same quarter last year. Net income totaled $15.2 million for the third quarter of 2001, or 31.1% above the $11.6 million in net income for the third quarter of 2000. The Company earned $0.30 per share for the third quarter of 2001, an increase of 30.4% over the $0.23 net income per share for the same period in 2000. Diluted weighted average shares of common stock outstanding for the quarter ended September 30, 2001, were 50,123,000 as compared with 49,967,000 shares for the quarter ended September 30, 2000.

-MORE-

For the nine months ended September 30, 2001, fee revenue increased 26.5% to $246.6 million, compared to $194.8 million for the same period last year. Net income totaled $43.8 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2001, or 31.3% above the $33.4 million in net income, before cumulative effect of a change in accounting principle, for the same period last year. The Company earned $0.87 per share for the nine months ended September 30, 2001, an increase of 29.9% over the $0.67 net income per share, before cumulative effect of a change in accounting principle, for the same period in 2000. Diluted weighted average shares of common stock outstanding for the nine months ended September 30, 2001, were 50,133,000, as compared with 49,482,000 for the nine months ended September 30, 2000.

Net income and earnings per share for the nine months ended September 30, 2000 referred to above excludes the cumulative effect of a change in accounting principle effective January 1, 2000, related to revenue recognition and Staff Accounting Bulletin No. 101, "Revenue Recognition in Financial Statements" (SAB 101) taken in the first quarter of 2000. The cumulative effect of this change in accounting principle, net of tax benefit, was a charge of $50.6 million ($1.02 per share) taken during the first quarter of 2000.

Fee revenue for existing centers was strong during the third quarter of 2001. Comparable center fee revenue growth during the third quarter of 2001 was 22.0%. Comparable center fee revenue growth is defined as growth in fee revenue relative to the corresponding prior-year period by centers affiliated with the Company throughout each of the two periods being compared. Comparable center fee revenue growth during the third quarter of 2001, including only centers affiliated with the Company for at least 26 months, was 11.3%.

As previously announced, OCA and OrthAlliance, Inc. entered into a definitive merger agreement on May 16, 2001, whereby a wholly-owned subsidiary of OCA would merge into OrthAlliance in a stock-for-stock transaction, with OrthAlliance becoming a wholly-owned subsidiary of OCA. As of June 30, 2001, OrthAlliance was affiliated with 226 orthodontists and pediatric dentists practicing in 397 centers throughout the United States. The transaction, which is subject to approval by OrthAlliance stockholders and other conditions, is currently anticipated to close in early November 2001 and to be accounted for as a purchase.

Mr. Palmisano said, "Our proposed merger with OrthAlliance presents an unprecedented strategic opportunity for us. We look forward to welcoming these highly regarded and exceptionally talented professionals to our organization.

Edgar Filing: ORTHALLIANCE INC - Form 425

Rest assured, we intend to devote substantial resources to integrating OrthAlliance's practices efficiently and building strong relationships with OrthAlliance's affiliated orthodontists and pediatric dentists. We are excited about our prospects for growth and our continued ability to build shareholder value."

During the third quarter of 2001, the Company affiliated with ten new orthodontic professionals, and opened ten new centers. Of the ten new centers opened during the third quarter of 2001, nine were newly developed centers and one was an affiliation with an existing practice.

-MORE-

In closing, Mr. Palmisano said, "Our continued strong results are a product of focused, intelligent growth, which has long been our operating philosophy. While patient case starts increased 20.5% over the third quarter of 2000, the dollar amount of those new patient contracts increased by more than 25%. We are extremely encouraged about all our growth initiatives and remain confident in our ability to execute our operating strategy soundly. The business discipline that we have exercised to date will continue to serve us well going forward in building long-term shareholder value."
