Our Board has determined that each of the members of the Compensation Committee satisfies the current independence standards of the NASDAQ Stock Market listing standards.

Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee

Our Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee met once during the last fiscal year. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee is governed by the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee Charter adopted by the Board of Directors. A copy of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee Charter is available on DATATRAK's website. A shareholder may also obtain a printed copy of this document, free of charge, by writing to Investor Relations, c/o DATATRAK International, Inc., 6150 Parkland Blvd., Mayfield Heights, Ohio 44124.

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee is responsible for (1) identifying, selecting and recommending qualified individuals as nominees for the Board of Directors at each Annual Meeting or when otherwise required to fill a vacancy or increase the size of the Board of Directors and (2) assisting the Board of Directors in developing and implementing the Company's corporate governance policies and guidelines.

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will seek prospective Director nominees for an open Director position by soliciting suggestions from Committee members, other Board members, senior management or others. The Committee also may retain a third-party executive search firm to identify prospective Director nominees from time to time. Additionally, as discussed below, the Committee will accept shareholder recommendations regarding potential candidates for the Board.

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will evaluate Director nominees, including nominees that are submitted to the Company by a shareholder. In selecting new Directors of the Company, consideration is given to each individual Director's personal qualities and abilities, the collective Board members' skills and aptitudes for conducting oversight of the Company and its management, and duties imposed by law, regulation and the Company's contractual obligations. Important factors include the following minimum qualifications:

A desire to represent the best interests of the shareholders;

An express commitment to the mission and success of the Company as well as an ability to work compatibly with the Board and senior management;

A history of outstanding achievements and the highest ethical standards, values and integrity;

Experience and knowledge that is relevant to the Company and which has been obtained as a director or in a senior executive position or in an academic, scientific or government position;

The ability and willingness to commit and devote the necessary time and energy to the diligent performance of his or her duties, including preparing for, attending and participating in Board meetings and one or more standing committees of the Board; and

Basic knowledge of corporate governance matters and the role of boards of public companies.

In addition, Directors must have the ability and willingness to commit and devote the necessary time and energy to the diligent performance of his or her duties, including preparing for, attending and participating in Board meetings and one or more standing committees of the Board. In determining whether to recommend a Director for re-election, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee also considers the Director's past attendance at meetings, past performance and contribution to the activities of the Board of Directors.

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will use the above enumerated factors to consider potential candidates regardless of the source of the recommendation. Shareholder recommendations for Director nominations may be submitted to the Company at the following address: Investor Relations, DATATRAK International, Inc., 6150 Parkland Boulevard, Suite 100, Mayfield Heights, Ohio 44124.

Shareholder recommendations for Director nominations will be forwarded to the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee for consideration, provided that such recommendations are accompanied by sufficient information to permit the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee to evaluate the qualifications and experience of the nominees. Recommendations should include, at a minimum, the following:

The name and contact information for the candidate;

A brief biographical description of the candidate, including his or her employment for at least the last five years, educational history, and a statement that describes the candidate's qualifications to serve as a Director;

A statement describing any relationship between the candidate and the nominating shareholder, and between the candidate and any employee, Director, customer, supplier, vendor or competitor of DATATRAK; and

The candidate's signed consent to be a candidate and to serve as a Director if nominated and elected, including being named in our proxy statement.

Once the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee has identified a prospective candidate, the Committee makes a determination whether to conduct a full evaluation of the candidate. This initial determination is based primarily on the Board's need to fill a vacancy or desire to expand the size of the Board as well as the likelihood that the candidate can meet the Committee's evaluation criteria set out in the Committee's charter as well as compliance with all other legal and regulatory requirements. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will rely on public information about a candidate, personal knowledge of any Committee or Board member or member of management regarding the candidate, as well as any information submitted to the Committee by the person recommending a candidate for consideration. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, after consultation with other Board members, will decide whether additional consideration of the candidate is warranted. If additional consideration is warranted, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee may request the candidate to complete a questionnaire that seeks additional information about the candidate's independence, qualifications, experience and other information that may assist the Committee in evaluating the candidate. The Committee may interview the candidate in person or by telephone and also may ask the candidate to meet with senior management. The Committee then evaluates the candidate against the standards and qualifications set out in the Committee's charter. Additionally, the Committee shall consider other relevant factors as it deems appropriate (including independence issues and family or related party relationships).

Before nominating an existing Director for re-election at an Annual Meeting, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will consider the Director's past performance and contribution to the Board and its committees. After completing the evaluation of new candidates or existing Directors whose term is expiring, if the Committee believes the candidate would be a valuable addition to the Board or the existing Director is a valued member of the Board, then the Committee will make a recommendation to the full Board that such candidate or existing Director should be nominated by the Board. The Board will be responsible for making the final determination regarding prospective nominees after considering the recommendation of the Committee.

Executive Committee

The Executive Committee has the authority to exercise all powers of the Board of Directors in the management of our business and affairs of at any time when the entire Board of Directors cannot meet. The Executive Committee did not meet during our 2008 fiscal year.

Pursuant to the separation agreement, Dr. Green will also provide certain advisory and consulting services to the Company in exchange for a one-time retainer fee of $1,000 and the provision of certain health/medical insurance benefits during the three month period commencing January 21, 2009. In addition, this separation agreement includes a mutual release of claims each party may have against the other, and Dr. Green also agreed to certain noncompetition and nondisclosure provisions for a period of up to twenty-four months following his separation from the Company effective January 21, 2009.

Dr. Green's employment agreement provided for his employment to be terminated with or without cause, upon his death or disability or with sufficient reason. Additionally, under the agreement, Dr. Green was entitled to terminate his employment for good reason. Good reason for such termination would exist if at any time, (1) there was a material breach of Dr. Green's employment agreement by the Company, (2) shareholders failed to elect Dr. Green to the Board of Directors or Dr. Green was otherwise removed from the Board of Directors, and (3) except in connection with the termination of Dr. Green's employment in strict compliance with the terms of the agreement, the Board of Directors (a) failed to elect Dr. Green to his executive position, (b) failed to vest Dr. Green with the powers and authority customarily associated with his position or (c) significantly diminished his responsibilities, duties, power or authority. If Dr. Green terminated his employment for good reason, he would have been entitled to continue to receive his base salary for two years following the date of such termination. If Dr. Green's employment was terminated in connection with the sale of our business, he would have been entitled to continue to receive his base salary for one year following the date of such termination. If his employment was terminated without cause or without sufficient reason, he would have been entitled to continue to receive his base salary for a period of two years subsequent to the date of termination. If Dr. Green would have terminated his employment without good reason, or if he was terminated for cause, then he would have been entitled to receive his base salary through the date of termination. For purposes of Dr. Green's agreement, cause was defined as a determination by the Board of Directors that the employee was (1) convicted of a felony involving moral turpitude or a felony in connection with his employment, (2) engaged in fraud, embezzlement, material willful destruction of property or material disruption of our operations, (3) used or was in possession of illegal drugs and/or alcohol on our premises or reporting to work under the influence of same, or (4) engaged in conduct, in or out of the workplace, which in our reasonable determination has an adverse effect on our reputation or business. Sufficient reason meant a good faith determination that the employee failed to adequately perform his duties as an officer or achieve the business objectives mutually agreed upon by the parties.

Terry C. Black. In February 2001, we entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Black providing for an initial term of one year. The agreement automatically renewed for successive one-year periods thereafter unless certain prior notice requirements were not satisfied. The base salary initially provided for in this agreement was $125,000 per year, to be reviewed at least annually by the Compensation Committee. Subsequent reviews by the Compensation Committee increased the base salary component of Mr. Black's agreement to $180,000 per year effective April 1, 2007. On May 21, 2008, the Board of Directors eliminated Mr. Black's position as Chief Operating Officer of the Company, and effective June 20, 2008 (the Date of Separation), Mr. Black was no longer an employee of the Company. On July 7, 2008, the Company and Mr. Black entered into a separation agreement pursuant to which, among other things, Mr. Black will provide certain advisory and consulting services regarding the business of the Company for no more than one hundred (100) hours per calendar quarter during the twelve (12) month period commencing on the Date of Separation, which may be extended by mutual agreement of both parties. The Company will compensate Mr. Black for his advisory and consulting services at a rate of $120.00 per hour. In addition, the separation agreement provides that pursuant to Mr. Black's employment agreement, the Company will continue Mr. Black's salary for a period of twelve (12) months commencing on the first regular payday following the Date of Separation through and including June 19, 2009, and also that the Company will pay for certain outplacement services for Mr. Black in an amount not to exceed $10,000. The separation agreement includes a mutual release of claims each party may have against the other, and also provides that the Company will pay Mr. Black all earned but unused paid time off less applicable payroll taxes and withholdings on the Company's first regular payday following the Date of Separation, and that Mr. Black will be entitled to the same medical benefits as other active senior executives of the Company until June 30, 2009.

Mr. Black's employment agreement provided that his employment could have been terminated with or without cause or upon his death or disability. Additionally, Mr. Black was entitled to terminate his employment for good reason. If Mr. Black were to have terminated his employment for good reason, he would have been entitled to receive his base salary for a period of one year following the date of such termination. If Mr. Black's employment were to have been terminated in connection with a sale of our business, he would have been entitled to continue to receive his base salary for one year following the date of such termination. If his employment was terminated without cause, he would have been entitled to receive his base salary for a period of one year subsequent to the date of termination. If Mr. Black terminated his employment without good reason, or if he was terminated for cause, he would have been entitled to receive his base salary through the date of termination. For purposes of Mr. Black's agreement, cause was defined as a determination by the Board of Directors that the employee was (1) convicted of a felony involving moral turpitude or a felony in connection with his employment, (2) engaged in fraud, embezzlement, material willful destruction of property or material disruption of our operations, (3) using or in possession of illegal drugs and/or alcohol on our premises or reporting to work under the influence of same, or (4) engaged in conduct, in or out of the workplace, which in our reasonable determination would have had an adverse effect on our reputation or business. Mr. Black's agreement also included certain noncompetition and nondisclosure provisions, which continue for a period up to eighteen months from his Date of Separation.

Raymond J. Merk. In April 2008, we entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Merk providing for an initial term of one year. This agreement, which remains in effect, automatically renews for successive one-year periods thereafter unless certain prior notice requirements are satisfied. The base salary initially provided for in this agreement is $150,000 per year, to be reviewed at least annually by the Compensation Committee. No bonuses were paid for fiscal 2008. Effective January 21, 2009, the base salary to be provided for Mr. Merk pursuant to this agreement will be $175,000 per year. Bonuses may be paid to Mr. Merk at the discretion of the Compensation Committee. The agreement also provides Mr. Merk with the right to participate in all benefits plans made available to our executives and/or employees. Mr. Merk's employment may be terminated with or without cause or upon his death or disability. Additionally, Mr. Merk is entitled to terminate his employment for good reason. If Mr. Merk terminates his employment for good reason, he will be entitled to receive his base salary for a period of one year following the date of such termination. If Mr. Merk's employment is terminated in connection with a sale of our business, he will be entitled to continue to receive his base salary for one year following the date of such termination. If his employment is terminated without cause, he will be entitled to receive his base salary for a period of one year subsequent to the date of termination. If Mr. Merk terminates his employment without good reason, or if he is terminated for cause, he will be entitled to receive his base salary through the date of termination. For purposes of Mr. Merk's agreement, cause is defined as a determination by the Board of Directors that the employee was (1) convicted of a felony involving moral turpitude or a felony in connection with his employment, (2) engaged in fraud, embezzlement, material willful destruction of property or material disruption of our operations, (3) using or in possession of illegal drugs and/or alcohol on our premises or reporting to work under the influence of same, or (4) engaged in conduct, in or out of the workplace, which in our reasonable determination has an adverse effect on our reputation or business. Mr. Merk also agreed to certain noncompetition and nondisclosure provisions, which continue under certain conditions for a period up to eighteen months following a termination of Mr. Merk's employment.

G. Matthew Delaney. Effective May 15, 2008, the Company entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Delaney which provides for an initial term of one year, and automatically renews for successive one year periods thereafter unless certain prior notice requirements are satisfied. The base salary initially provided for in the employment agreement is $150,000 per year, to be reviewed at least annually by the Compensation Committee. In addition, the agreement provides for a grant of 35,000 restricted common shares of the Company pursuant to the Company's 2005 Omnibus Equity Plan, and all such restricted common shares will become fully vested one year from the date of grant. On March 13, 2009, the Board of Directors removed Mr. Delaney as the Company's Interim President and his employment with the Company was terminated effective April 12, 2009. Pursuant to the terms of his employment agreement, as described in greater detail below, Mr. Delaney will be entitled to receive one (1) year of salary continuation commencing on April 13, 2009 and up to $10,000 in outplacement services from an agency to be selected by the Company.

Table of Contents

Mr. Delaney's employment agreement provided that his employment could have been terminated with or without cause or upon his death or disability. Additionally, Mr. Delaney was entitled to terminate his employment for good reason. If Mr. Delaney had terminated his employment for good reason, he would have been entitled to receive his base salary for a period of one year following the date of such termination. If Mr. Delaney's employment was terminated in connection with a sale of our business, he would have been entitled to continue to receive his base salary for one year following the date of such termination. If his employment was terminated without cause, he would have been entitled to receive his base salary for a period of one year subsequent to the date of termination. If Mr. Delaney would have terminated his employment without good reason, or if he was terminated for cause, he would have been entitled to receive his base salary through the date of termination. For purposes of Mr. Delaney's agreement, cause was defined as a determination by the Board of Directors that the employee was (1) convicted of a felony involving moral turpitude or a felony in connection with his employment, (2) engaged in fraud, embezzlement, material willful destruction of property or material disruption of our operations, (3) using or in possession of illegal drugs and/or alcohol on our premises or reporting to work under the influence of same, or (4) engaged in conduct, in or out of the workplace, which in our reasonable determination would have had an adverse effect on our reputation or business. The employment agreement allowed for the payment of bonuses to be paid Mr. Delaney at the discretion of the Compensation Committee. The agreement also provided Mr. Delaney with the right to participate in all benefits plans made available to our executives and/or employees. Mr. Delaney also agreed to certain noncompetition and nondisclosure provisions which continue under certain conditions for a period up to eighteen months following his termination from the Company effective April 12, 2009.

- (3) Pursuant to the terms of his separation agreement with the Company, Dr. Green's option awards expired on April 21, 2009.

- (4) Pursuant to the terms of his separation agreement and stock option agreements with the Company, Mr. Black shall only have the right to exercise stock options under such stock option agreements for a period of 90 days following the expiration of Mr. Black's advisory and consulting services as set forth in his separation agreement.

- (5) Upon Mr. Delaney's separation from the Company in 2009, all 45,000 restricted Common Shares were forfeited back to the Company.

Additionally, with respect to our 2005 Omnibus Equity Plan (the Omnibus Plan), all stock options to purchase Common Shares granted thereunder to a named Executive Officer vest immediately upon such Named Executive Officer's termination by Death, Disability, or Retirement, as such terms are defined in our Omnibus Plan. Under the Omnibus Plan, all awards become vested upon a Change in Control, as such term is defined in our Omnibus Plan.

Director Compensation

Under the Director compensation program, each Director receives an annual retainer payable solely in stock options with a value of $32,000. Under the Director compensation plan, each new non-management Director will receive an annual retainer payable in stock options with a value of between $32,000 and $48,000 for their first year of service. There were no new non-management Directors appointed in 2008.

In addition to the above, the Chairman of the Board receives $5,000 per month in cash compensation and an additional option grant in connection with the fourth quarter grant equal to the difference between 50,000 options and the number of options received during the year (including the normal fourth quarter grant). The chair of our Audit Committee receives an additional annual payment of $4,000 in stock options and the chairs of our Compensation Committee and Nominating and Corporate Governance Committees receive an additional annual payment of $2,000 in stock options. All of the annual payments are paid on a quarterly basis. In addition, each non-management Director will be paid a fee, payable quarterly in stock options, ranging from $500 to $1,000 per each attended meeting of our Board or a Committee. Directors will not be paid for a Committee meeting when that meeting coincides with a quarterly Board meeting. Directors will also receive reimbursement for reasonable expenses incurred in attending meetings of the Board of Directors. For purposes of Director payments in stock options, the stock options are valued at the closing price on the third business day following each quarterly earnings announcement. The aggregate number of stock options granted to Directors in each quarter shall not exceed 42,000 shares. In the event that the aggregate value of Director compensation for the quarter would, according to the above methodology, result in the issuance of greater than 42,000 options in the aggregate, each Director's option shall be proportionately reduced (based on each Director's compensation for the quarter as a percent of the whole) so that the total option shares granted equals 42,000. As a result of the deterioration in the Company stock price over the last twelve months, this 42,000 per quarter aggregate director options limitation has substantially reduced the actual value received by the Directors to a level substantially below the target retainer, chair fees and meeting fees described herein.

The following table and related notes and discussion summarize certain information concerning the annual or long-term compensation for services in all capacities, for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2008, to DATATRAK's non-management Directors:

ITEM 13. CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS AND DIRECTOR INDEPENDENCE.

Certain Relationships and Related Transactions

As described in greater detail in the Form 8-K filed with the Commission on February 17, 2006 (the Merger 8-K), on February 13, 2006, DATATRAK acquired ClickFind. Mr. Jim Bob Ward, who was the Founder and a significant shareholder of ClickFind, also served as its President and Chief Executive Officer.

The negotiated terms of the acquisition were for an aggregate purchase price of $18,000,000, less approximately $328,000 in certain transaction expenses and certain indebtedness of ClickFind. The cash portion of the purchase price, less cash acquired of $87,000, was approximately $4,669,000. The remainder of the purchase price consisted of $4,000,000 in notes payable (the Click Find Notes) and the issuance of approximately $7,863,000 in Common Shares (1,026,522 Common Shares). The $3,000,000 balance of the notes payable had an interest rate of prime plus 1%. The final principal payment was to be payable on February 1, 2009.

In conjunction with the acquisition of ClickFind, DATATRAK appointed Mr. Ward as Vice President of eClinical Development and entered into an employment agreement with him (Mr. Ward s official title was subsequently changed to Vice President of Research and Development, and effective March 31, 2008, Mr. Ward was appointed Executive Vice President of Market and Client Strategy). In connection with the acquisition of ClickFind, we entered into a Limited Software License Agreement (the License Agreement) with Mr. Ward, granting Mr. Ward a limited, royalty-free, non-exclusive license to use, make and create modifications of, sublicense and distribute copies of, and sublicense in executable form the current version of the ClickFind software (as it existed at the time of the closing of our acquisition of ClickFind) in different non-competitive commercial applications. A copy of the License Agreement is attached as Exhibit 10.3 to the Merger 8-K.

In 2008, the Company and certain of the former shareholders of ClickFind, including Mr. Ward (the Defendants), were involved in a legal dispute (the Lawsuit), regarding a number of matters, including certain representations and warranties in the ClickFind merger agreement and the Company's obligation to pay the remaining balance of the ClickFind Notes.

On December 18, 2008, the Company announced that it and the Defendants entered into a settlement agreement (the Settlement Agreement) whereby the parties settled all claims against each other relating to the Lawsuit. The Settlement Agreement provided, among other things, that the Defendants discharge and release their rights to payment from the Company of both the remaining $3,000,000 principal balance of the ClickFind Notes and accrued interest thereon of approximately $180,000. Furthermore, the Company entered into an amendment to Mr. Ward's employment agreement, whereby the period during which Mr. Ward remains restricted from engaging in certain activities pursuant to the provisions of his employment agreement, including but not limited to non-competition and non-solicitation provisions, was reduced from thirty-six (36) months to eighteen (18) months following November 1, 2008. The remaining obligations set forth in Mr. Ward's employment agreement, including but not limited to confidentiality and intellectual property provisions, remain in full force and effect. Additionally, pursuant to the Settlement Agreement, the Company agreed to make equal periodic payments to Mr. Ward totaling One Hundred Forty Thousand Dollars ($140,000), during the one-year period starting November 1, 2008 and ending on October 31, 2009.
