Words such as “may,” “will,” “could,” “should,” “expect,” “plan,” “project,” “intend,” “anticipate,” “believe,” “estimate,” “predict,” “potential,” “pursue,” “target,” “contingent” expressions are intended to identify such forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements include, without limitation, Continental’s and UAL’s expectations with respect to the synergies, costs and other anticipated financial impacts of the proposed transaction; future financial and operating results of the combined company; the combined company's plans, objectives, expectations and intentions with respect to future operations and services; approval of the proposed transaction by stockholders and by governmental regulatory authorities; the satisfaction of the closing conditions to the proposed transaction; the timing of the completion of the proposed transaction; and other factors that are set forth in the "Risk Factors" section, the "Legal Proceedings" section, the "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" section and other sections of UAL's and Continental's Annual Reports on Form 10-K, subsequent Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q, recent Current Reports on Form 8-K, and other SEC filings. All subsequent written and oral forward-looking statements concerning Continental, UAL, the proposed transaction or other matters and attributable to Continental or UAL or any person acting on their behalf are expressly qualified in their entirety by the cautionary statements above. Neither Continental nor UAL undertakes any obligation to publicly update any of these forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances that may arise after the date hereof.

The following email was first distributed to a number of individuals and organizations on May 27, 2010. Each email was accompanied by one of the form letters included herein.

Dear [NAME],

Thank you for your interest in the proposed merger of United Airlines and Continental Airlines.

I have attached a sample letter of support for your consideration to send to [NAME]. Your support will send an important message to the elected officials and regulators who will be reviewing the transaction.

Please don't hesitate to get in touch if you have any questions about the attached letter or anything else related to the merger.

Sincerely,

Dear [NAME]:

I am writing to express [my/BUSINESS NAME's] enthusiastic support for the proposed merger of United Airlines and Continental Airlines.

The merger of United and Continental will create a financially stronger, sustainable airline that will be better able to succeed in an increasingly competitive domestic and international aviation industry. The merger could allow us to build on our current relationship and become a stronger partner with the combined airline. The combined airline's increased financial strength is particularly good news for our company and our [XX] employees in [CITY/STATE].

United and Continental are well-suited to combine. They have the most complementary route networks of any U.S. carriers and will offer convenient access to Asia, Europe, Latin America, Africa and the Middle East. From a cargo perspective, the combined carriers would generate far-ranging logistics options with more than 150 wide body, containerized aircraft. From the standpoint of [BUSINESS NAME], we see opportunities and efficiencies that would improve the way we do business with the merged airline.

This merger will take the partnership of United and Continental to the next level, and we want to be a part of their future success. I ask that you let Attorney General Holder and Transportation Secretary LaHood know of [BUSINESS NAME's/our] support for the merger and hope you will support it, too.

Sincerely,
